Technology Driven For Growth

Foster the growth of black Minority tech owners with the Black Channel Partner Alliance BCPA.

Gain access to a black lead supplier directory for added diversity within your supply chains. By pledging your support you're aligning yourself with the voice of change within the technology space. Your support will allow for the continued growth and education of black lead managed service providers which in turn can grow into value added suppliers of your businesses and organizations.

Your support will provide you with added exposure to BCPA partners nationwide as well as allow you to participate in events or guest speak and present your organization value propositions as well as additional value incentives depending on commitment levels.

Put your technology at the forefront within the black tech communal space.

Make use of the right channels

BCPA helps you elevate your business by providing exposure to under-represented communities which traditional companies may not have access to. Be the voice of change and gain viewership in our:

- BCPA Accelerator Program
- BCPA Summit
- Events and trainings
- Social media platforms
- Website portal
- Newsletter

Driven by change

An accelerator program driven to making a difference in the overall returns in black owned minority business owners within the technology space. By partnering with us you are supporting the growth and development of these businesses throughout America.

Our Mission is to build, high performance, community focused, sustainable next generation channel partners within our communities. We're committed to helping 100+ channel partners ad $1M of net revenue in three years. We want to be a leader in job creation by opening doors and establishing 800+ new tech jobs and 1000+ digital transformations within the Black community.

With an ever expanding partner directory and on going functions we know that visibility of partnered brands will be at the forefront of our members and will result in continued interests in present technologies and businesses.
